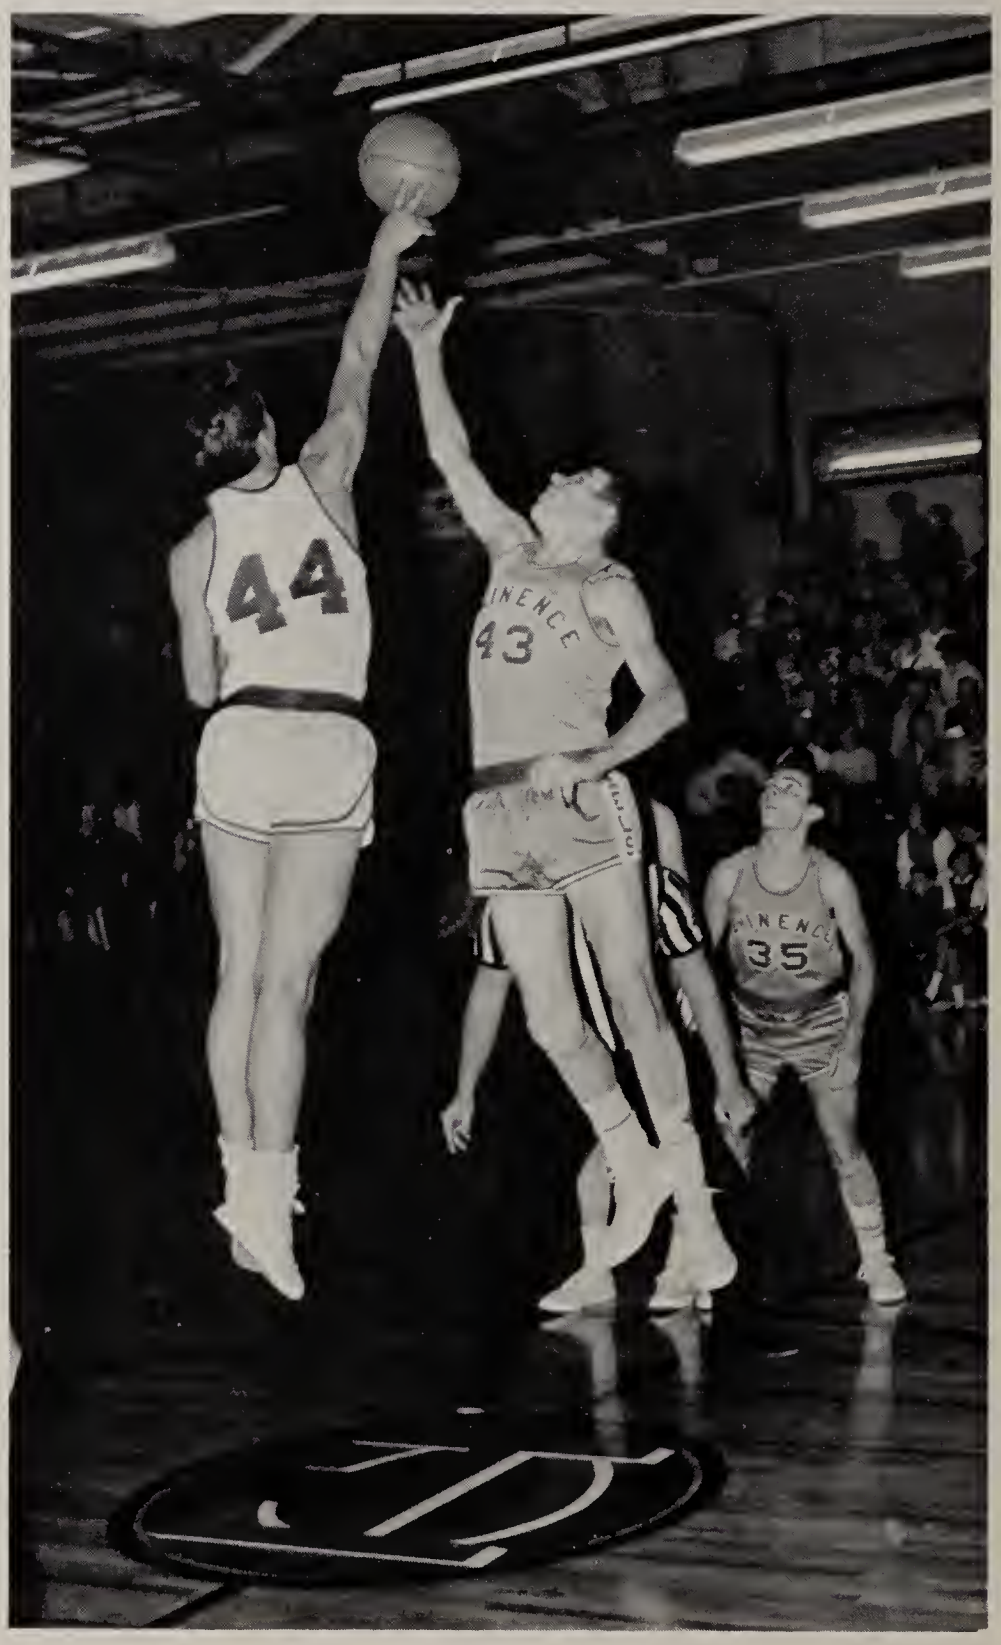
An important academic beginning was the forming of the first National Honor Society.



With the tip begins our first basketball game played at Indian Creek.

The Year of "Firsts"

Our first year was a very important, "trend-setting" year. Everything we did was done for the first time, beginning what is now history. Traditions we started may be expected to last for years to come.

Tim Magoon and Dave Roller present Mr. Ray with the first trophy won for Indian Creek by the Cross Country team.

Fans cheer the Braves on to their very first victory against Eminence.

The "before and after" view of our school

Students from three different schools waited a long time for a new school, one in which those three schools would be bound together. It was a long time coming but in the school year 1967-1968 it became a reality. Even though this school was not fully completed by the beginning of the school year, school did start on schedule. The students and faculty overcame many handicaps successfully to make the best of the first year.

Lockers, lockers, where are the lockers?

One open locker and no students in sight, but when the bell rings — look out!

With it's steel frame still visible, the school was on it's way to completion and use in the coming year.

Gym and School Dedication Ceremonies

On Friday night, December 1, the formal dedication of the gym was given between the Brown County-Indian Creek games. Phil Eskew, Indiana High School Athletic Association Commissioner was guest speaker. The following Sunday afternoon the dedication of the school took place in the newly dedicated gymnasium with an estimated crowd of 1,500 people attending. Mr. Harold Hibbs, Superintendent, welcomed the public and Mr. Hynds introduces the guest speaker, Mr. Raymond "Dutch" Struck, Athletic Director of Hanover College. Afterwards Mr. Charles Ray, Principal, gave comments and instructions on the following open house. Then the school was opened to the public and refreshments were served.

" . . . we must meet the challenge of change."

This beautiful cake was part of the Open House refreshments.

"Listen, coach, I'll bet I can play without my shoe!"

Anxiety can be seen on the faces of cheerleaders and pepclub members.

Mr. Phil Eskew congratulates Mr. Harold Hibbs for his devoted work in education.

A fine crowd witnessed the Open House ceremonies and enjoyed refreshments.

The Intensive Lab provides much helpful experience for the businesswoman of tomorrow.

A lot of work goes into a yearbook, as Connie and Russ know.

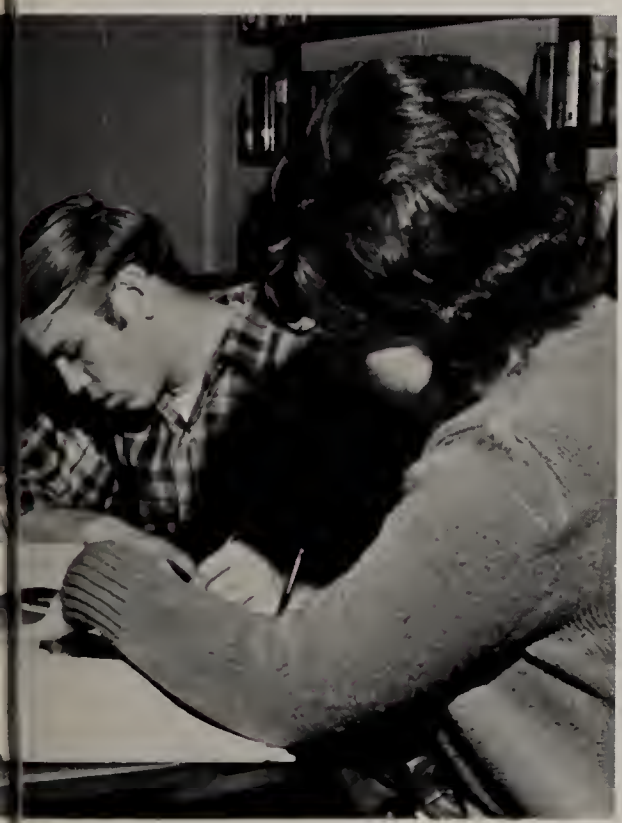
Research is an important tool of English education.

Good Educational Facilities at Indian Creek

The academic benefits of our new school are more than any of the three previous schools. Each educational department has benefited from the consolidation of the old schools. With more students at Indian Creek, it is possible to have a much wider variety of courses to fit individual needs.

Physical education can be fun, as these girls demonstrate.

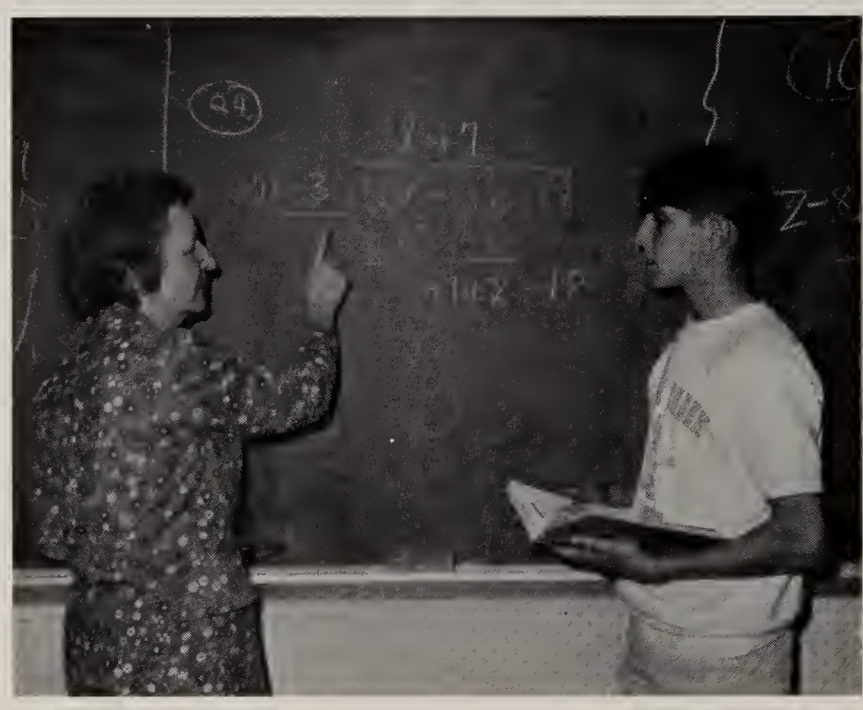
Chemistry students learn more from experimenting.



Mr. Wilke helps Ralph, Vic, and Mike; but Jim looks like he has a problem too.

IC Students Enjoy Educational Facilities

Longer class periods provide time for much more study and research. Along with the better facilities at Indian Creek, the longer classes create a healthy educational atmosphere.



Tony Brewer gets help with an algebra problem from Mrs. Coffey.

Gary, Patti, and Connie examine a camel in art class.

Sharon Stump enjoys using a Touch and Sew machine in Home Ec.

Mr. Walsh and Chris have a friendly argument about world affairs.

ACTIVITIES

Drama Night Audience Packs Auditorium

Violence almost prevails in this play, Great Smokies.

Drama Night was highlighted by the enthusiasm of student and faculty talent alike. Success was sparked by the warmth of the audience and the unveiled talent of the students. Expert direction by Mr. Sichting and the cooperation of the actors proved great performance can come from amateurs.

Mr. Sichting's (expert) impersonation of the Tarzan yell.

Anxious yet patient, students prepare for curtain time.

Sweetheart Dance Sets the Scene for Romance

The sly camera catches a moment of tenderness between sweethearts, Harold Taylor and Sherry Therrian.

What's a better way to end a "day for sweethearts" than to have a "Sweetheart Dance"? In the cafetorium, decorated with symbolic hearts, many a romance was sparked. At the end of the snowball dance even the shyest ones were out on the floor dancing. Christine Sizemore and Martha Miller proved to be the best dancers as they won the fast dance contest. The applause of the crowd gave the prize to Cindy Courtney and Rick Gibson in the slow dance contest. Indian Creek students can label their first "Sweetheart Dance" a success.

The dance floor begins to fill as the music softens.

Debby Hall and Danny Kean pose for the photographer in front of the dance decorations.

Debbie Hall can really swing to a wild beat.

Everyone Leaps for Joy at the Leprechaun Leap

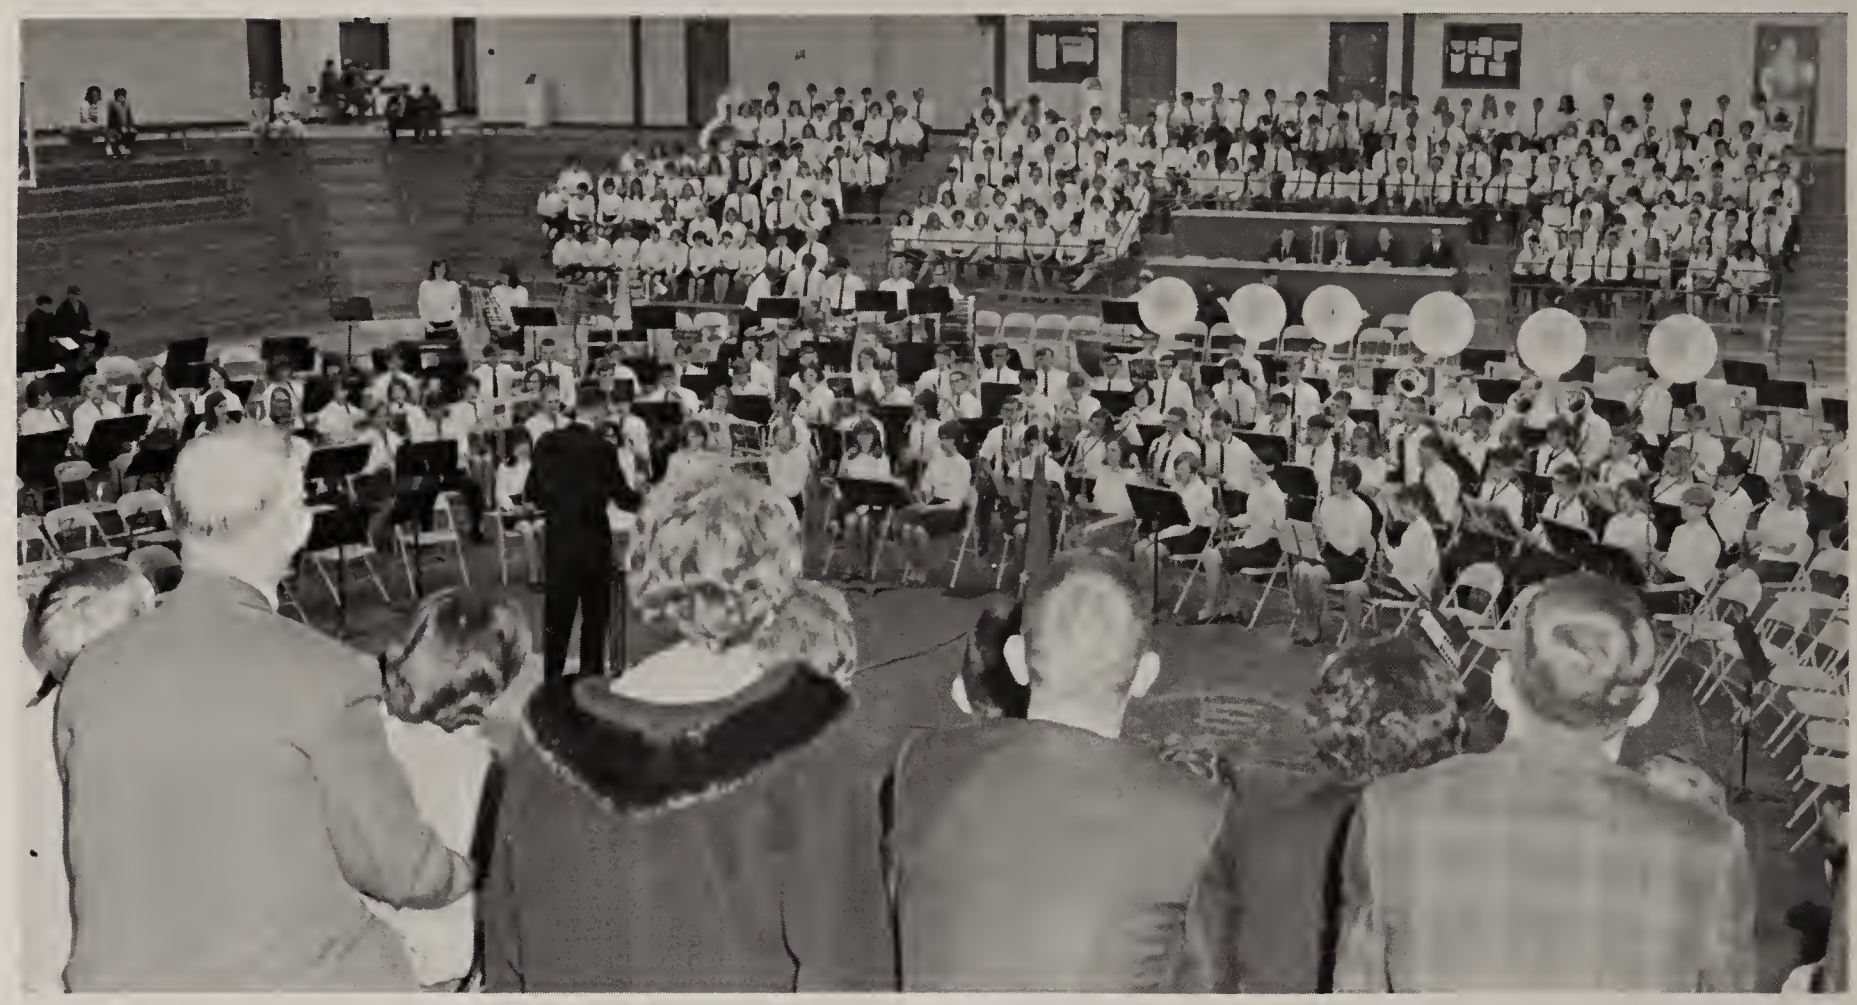
The Junior Class went all out with their Leprechaun Leap, which was another fund-raising project for the Prom. A psychedelic effect was provided by the wayout music of the band and the green lights, which highlighted one wall where the title of the dance was spelled out.

A member of the "Shapes of Things" provides entertainment for the crowd.

These girls dance under attractive decorations at the "Leap".

Where have all the boys gone . . .

. . . to the food — where else?!



A large crowd attends the impressive band program.

Indian Creek Hosts the Band Festival

Indian Creek-High School hosted its first combined band festival. This program was made up of bands from schools in Johnson County. They were: Greenwood, Whiteland, Franklin, Edinburg, Center Grove, and Indian Creek.

Mr. Hildreth (left) exchanges greetings with county band director, Mr. Cofield.

Band members warm up their instruments for their coming performance.

Harold Taylor (second from right) receives the first place band scholarship award from Mr. Hildreth.

Miss Pidgie McDougal (Marilyn Smith) is shocked by the words of Bill Lindsay (Mike Smith).

Drama Class Presents "Off the Track"

This play takes place in the waiting room of a small, wayside railroad station. A fast train is derailed and a variety of people are thrown together. Mrs. Vanderventer (Joyce Prather) loses her expensive pearls and pandemonium breaks loose. The pearls are found in Mrs. Guarino's (Marsha Penn) lunch basket. Bill Lindsay (Mike Smith) clears Mrs. Guarine of suspicion and exposes the guilty party. Finally the relief train arrives and everyone leaves.

"Worry, worry! Woe is me!"

Bob Hicks, who portrays the station agent, John Morgan, examines the evening's program.

Mrs. Guarino (Marsha Penn) argues with Willie Woodson (Joe Anderson), the prosecuting attorney.

Silas Dobbins (Craig McKee) leads Mrs. Vanderventer (Joyce Prather) from the witness stand.

Choral Department Presents Spring Sing

The Spring Sing was an enjoyable occasion for all, presented by the high school chorus and the Rhythmaires. Groups, duets, and singles performed before a large audience in the cafetorium.

Jim Patterson and Rita Land sing "On Moonlight Bay."

"Dry Bones," with some assistance from the faculty was a highlight of the evening.

Miss Snell directs the chorus in the singing of "Mountain High-Valley Low."

Martha Miller sings about a "Teacher's Load."

These happy couples are Gary Young, Sherry Wyatt, Brenda Hamilton, and Charles Zupanic.

"Three Coins in the Fountain"

The first Prom at Indian Creek will be especially remembered, not only because it was the first, but in many other ways. The juniors will never forget the work, money, and sweat it took to make the Prom a success. Those who came will always cherish the memory of a wonderful evening.

Arriving couples were given their favors and programs.

Harold Taylor swings to the beat of the "Organized Confusion."

Seniors Jeff Millikan and Doris David reigned at the Prom.

Prom court: Don Joslin, Paula Bauman

Doris seems excited when Jeff is named king.

Prom court: Don Poynter, Brenda Woodard.

As the evening wore on Becky Walls, Sue Riley, LaDonna Hamilton, and Marilyn Smith pause to relax.

These monkeys are really just juniors Jim Moore and Dewayne Skinner taking down decorations.

Bev White flies high on the trampoline at the Post Prom.

These hungry-eyed, half-starved couples at the Post Prom don't have to be asked twice to "Come and get it!"

There's Gaiety, Fun, and Food at the Post Prom

"Come down here, Doris!" says Rex Watson.

The Post Prom was for those who still had enough pep to get around. Many played basketball, ping pong, cards, swam in the pool, or jumped around on the trampoline. Sloppy joes, potato chips, and soft drinks were the refreshments worth waiting for.

Jim Moore accepts the Ade Smith Trophy from Coach Cummings.

Homeroom 123 Chairmen received the Poster Contest plaque.

Since Mrs. Coffey will be moving and will not teach at Indian Creek next year, Claudia Hacker presented her with a plaque.

Mr. Lydick was master of ceremonies at the Honor Day Program.

Underclassmen Honor Day Program

Perhaps the most exciting event in the whole program was the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Kuehn, confirmed bachelor, and Miss Knecht, yearbook sponsor.

The underclassmen had their own Awards Day Program on Wednesday, May 22, 1968. The freshmen, sophomores, and juniors received attendance, sports, commercial, and academic awards.

Seniors Are Honored with Awards Ceremony

In addition to the many awards presented at the Senior Awards Program, a brief resume of the future plans of the seniors was read. Many academic, club, and sports honors were received by the class of '68.

The principal accepts the National Honor Society charter from Ron Pogue, president of the society.

Senior Jim Kaylor had the honor of receiving the first blanket award ever presented at Inidan Creek.

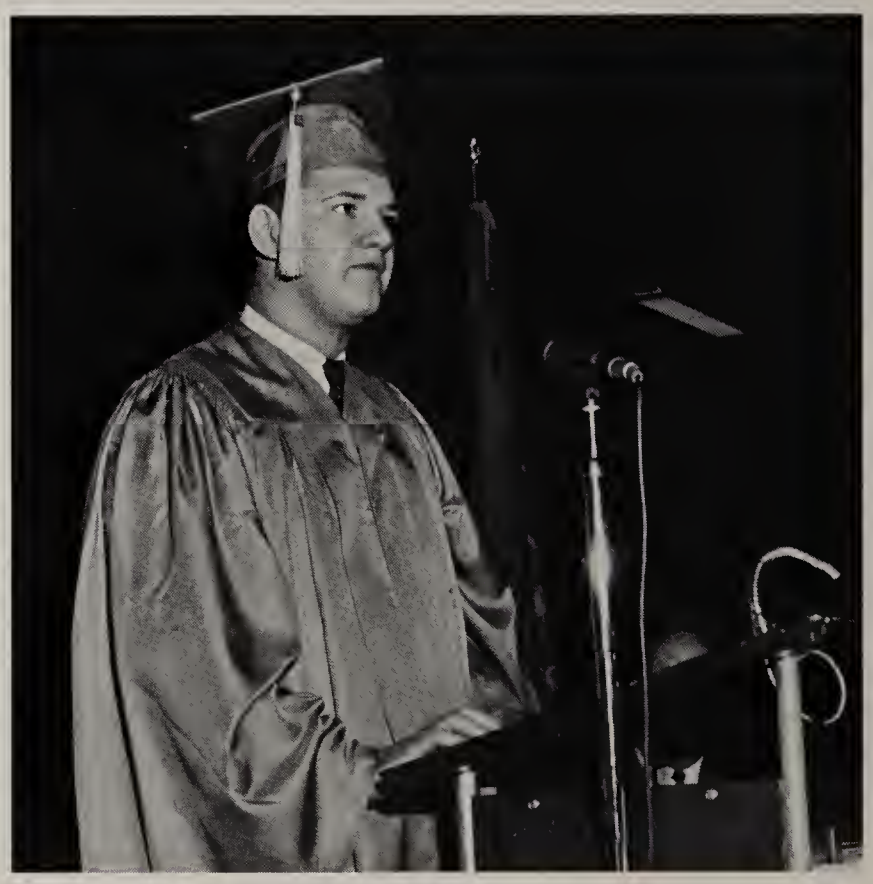
Don Poynter passed the key of leadership on to junior class president, Bev White.

Seniors Replace Speaker at Graduation

Four Senior V.I.P.'s gave speeches to set a different pace to the graduation exercises. The band provided such numbers as "Exodus", "Colorama", and "Night Winds", and "Autumn Silhouette".

Mr. Hynds introduces the student speakers.

Class President, Don Poynter, delivers the first speech.



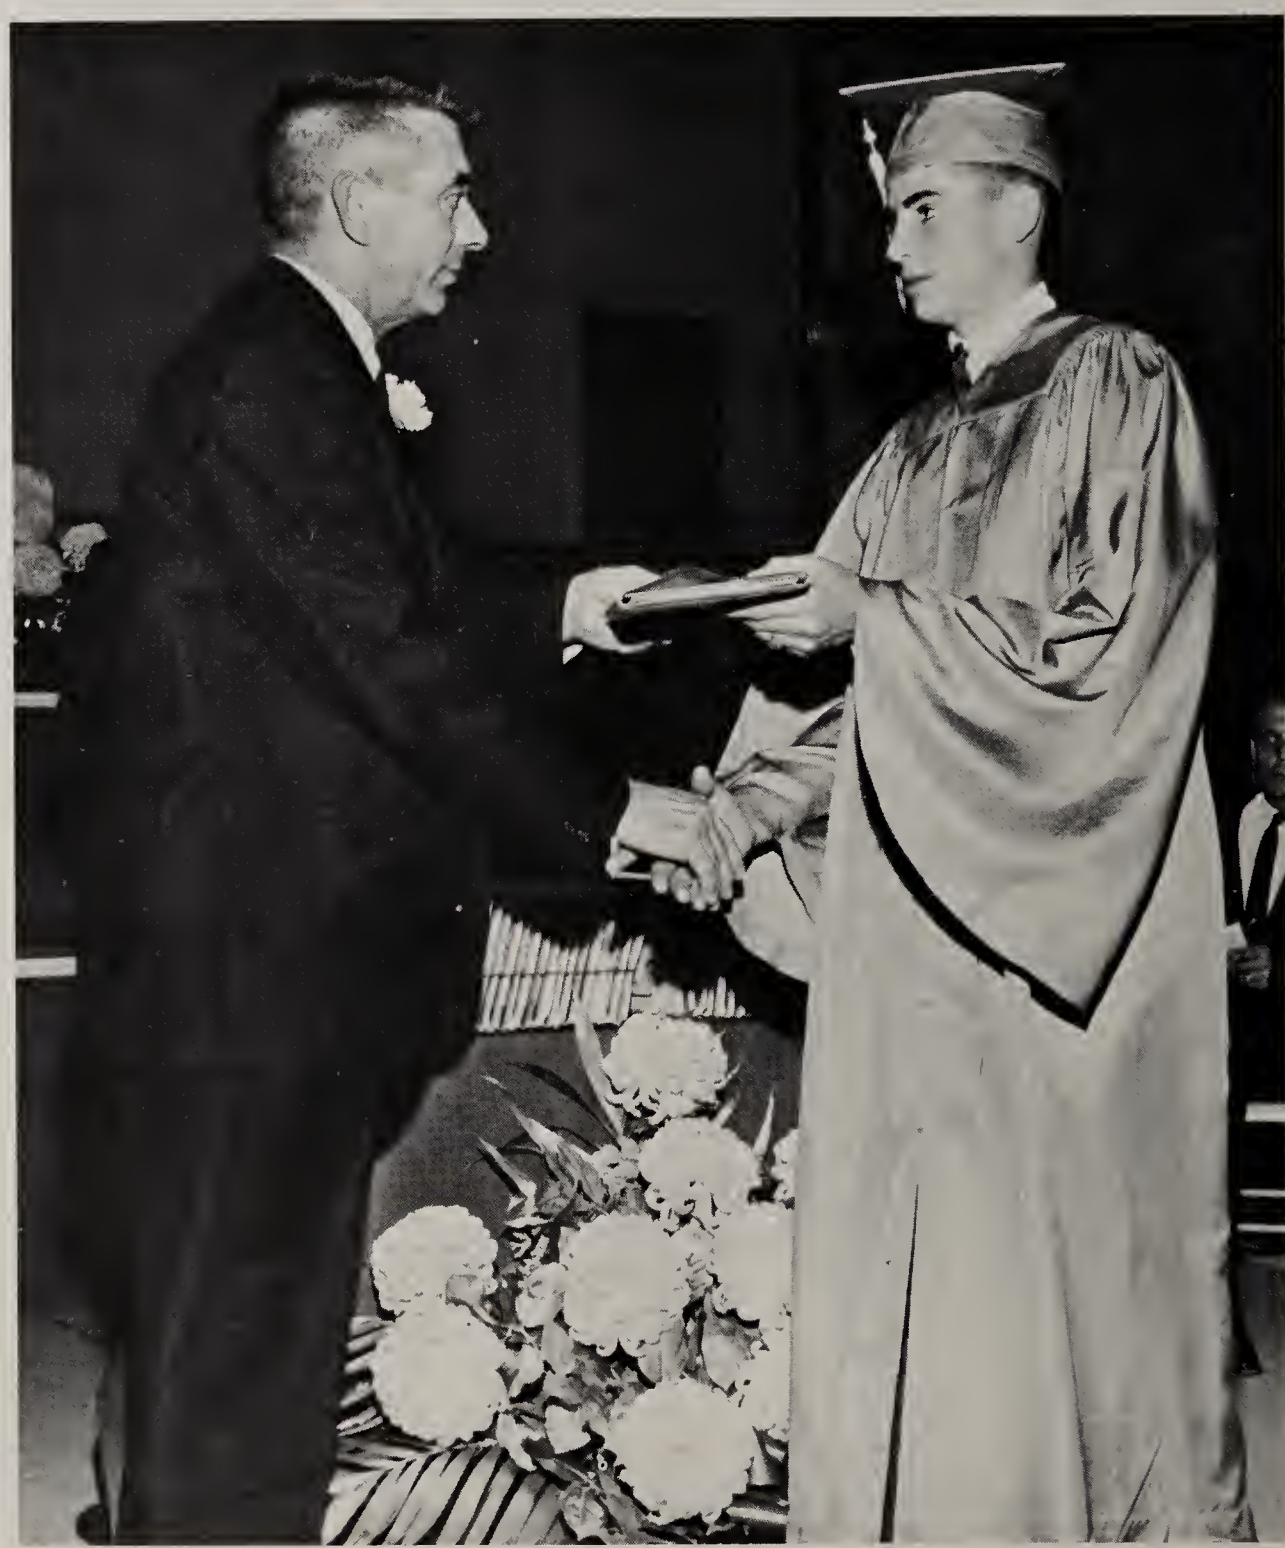
David Wilson, Valedictorian, talks on "Education."

Junnie Nichols, third in the class, delivers her speech.

Elaine Graves gives her Salutatorian speech.

The band, directed by Mr. Hildreth, provided music for the graduation.

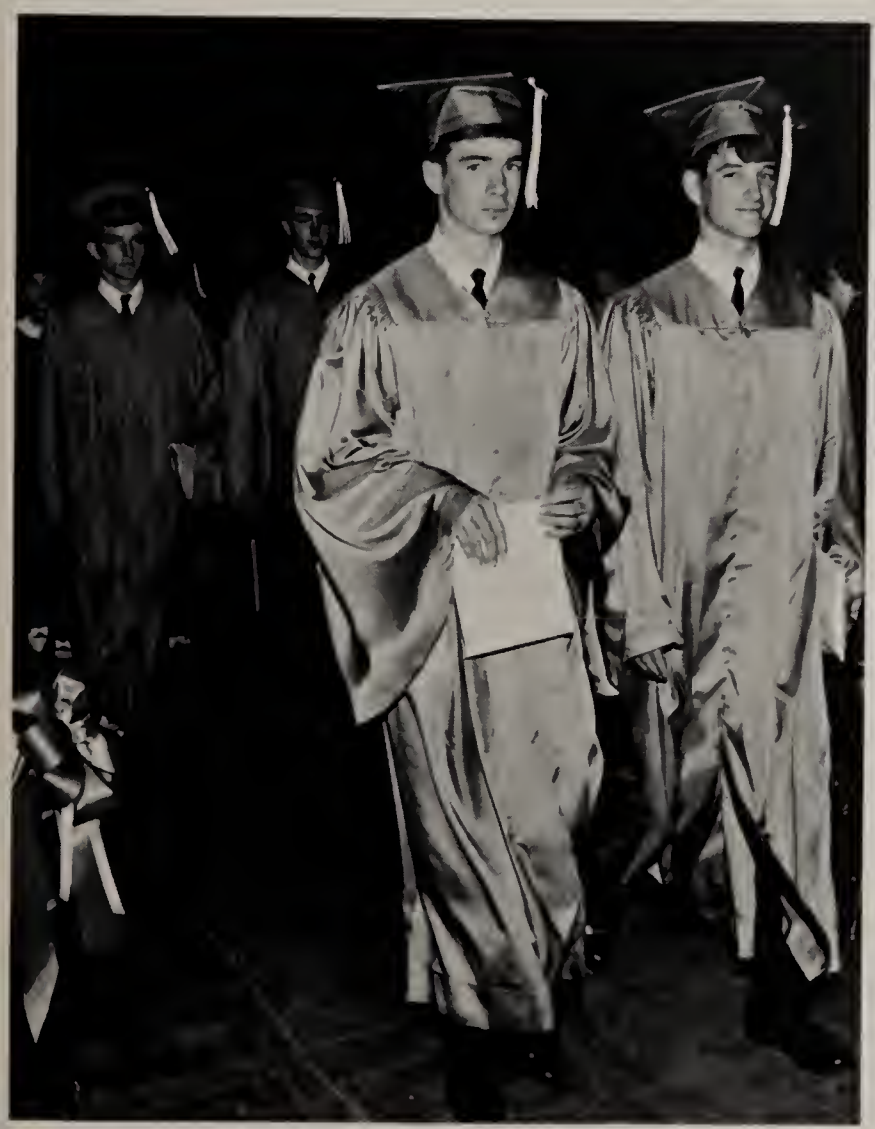
Mr. Adkins presented the first graduation class to Ezra Satter, president of the school board.



History is made when Don Poynter becomes the first student to ever receive an ICHS diploma.

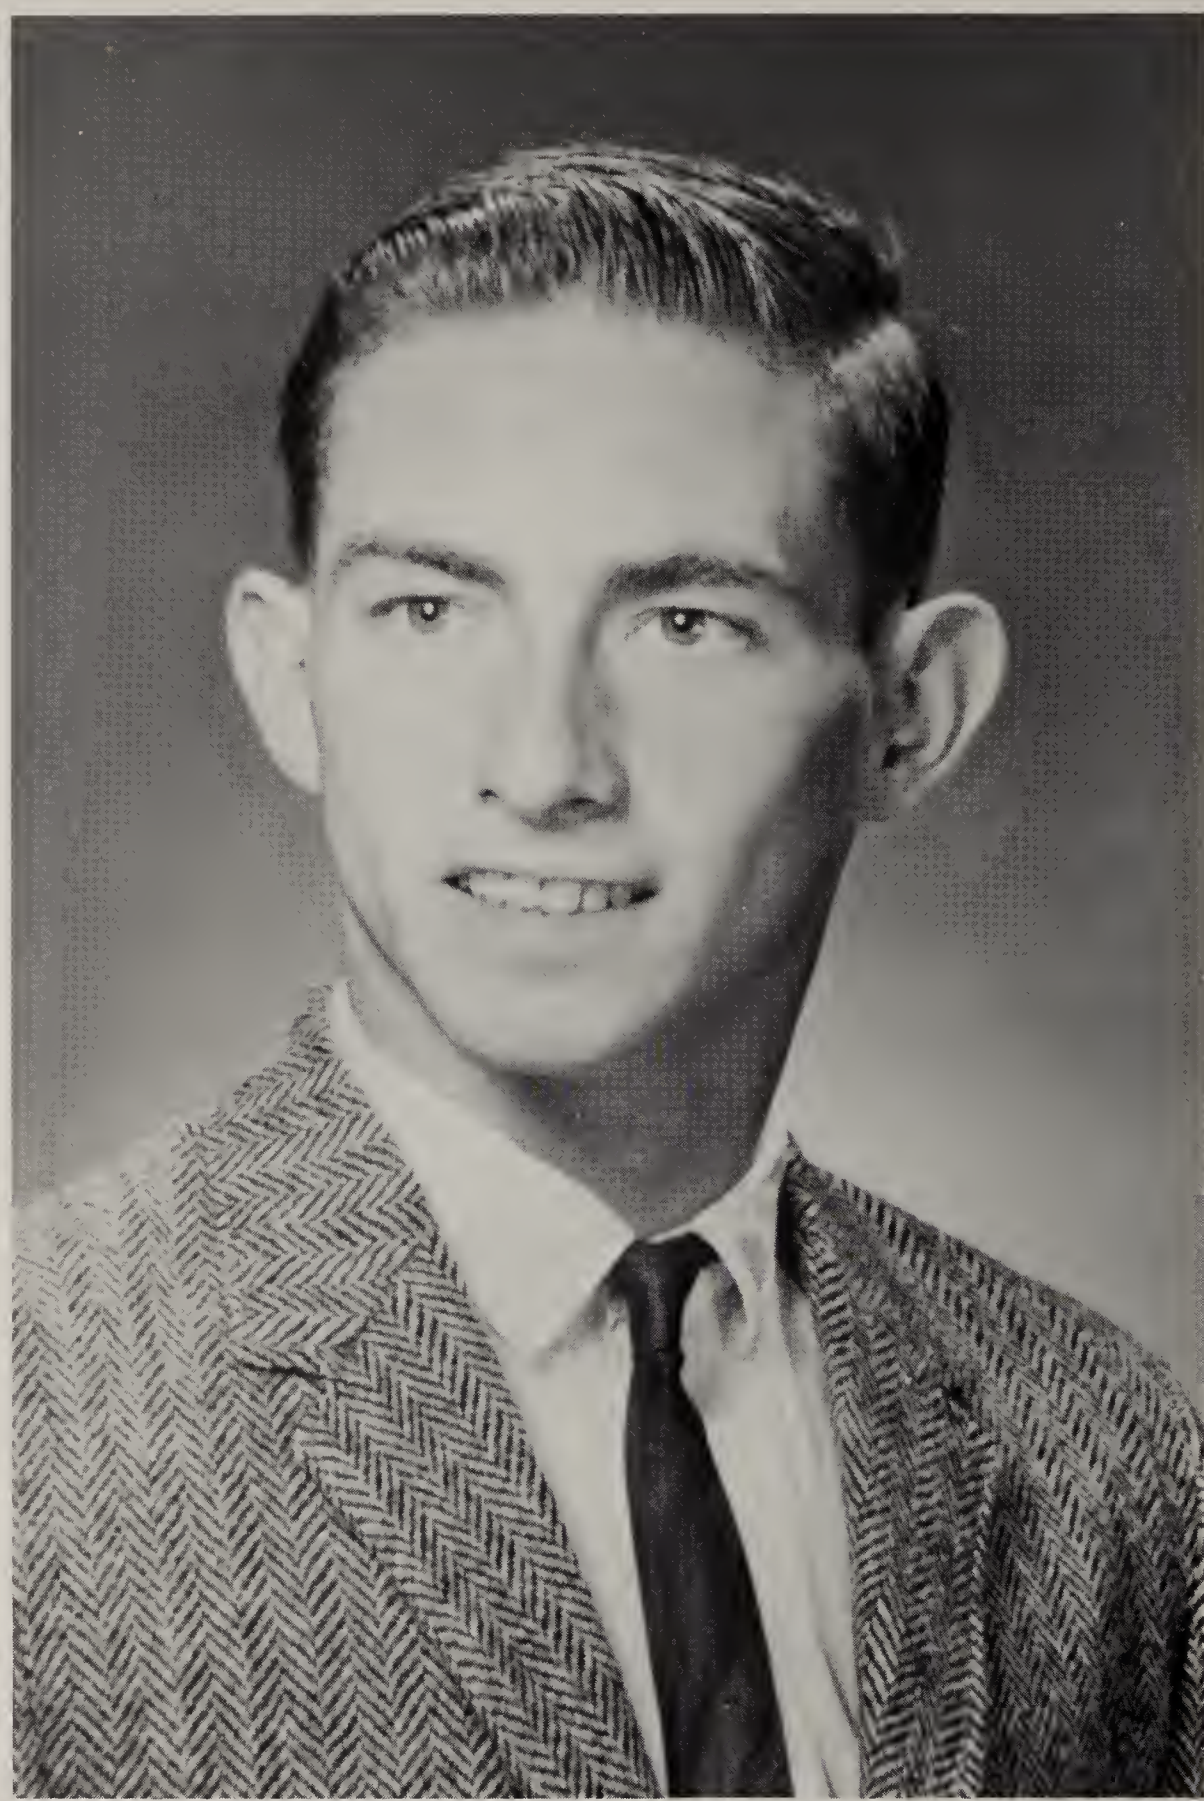
Tom Ray and Tim Magoon receive congratulations.

Indian Creek Diplomas Are Received



"Hail the conquering heroes!"

The long awaited day arrived at last. In addition to the ordinary joy one would feel upon graduation, these seniors had the added honor of being Indian Creek's first graduating class.



In Memory of Raymond Bay

Sadly missed by his classmates is Raymond Bay, who was killed in an automobile accident April 20, 1968. Raymond was born March 6, 1950, in Franklin, Indiana. His family moved to Morgantown in 1960 where he attended school until this year when the schools consolidated at Indian Creek. Raymond was a senior, outstanding in math, interested in mechanics, and a member of the Audio Visual Club.

SPORTS

The Reserve team had a good season with a record of 17 wins and 3 losses.

Reserve and Freshman Basketball Teams

The Reserve team had a great record this year. These boys will make fine varsity players. Although the freshman teams had rather poor records, the boys showed signs of becoming good ball players.

Jane Kitch, freshman

Jan Hall, freshman

Carol Lattimore, freshman

Margaret Hague, freshman

Sherry Lane, freshman

Patti Hynds, freshman

The Freshman "A" team won four games and lost six.

The freshman "B" team won one game and lost four.

Tourney Action

After sweeping past the Edinburg Lancers in their first game in the Holiday Tourney, the Braves connected with the Brown County Eagles the next night in a fierce battle, which marked a defeat for us in the books. But in the memories of all the players and all the fans was the mark of enthusiasm and good sportmanship, to ever set an example for future tourneys that will be held at this school. For all the future games that we will watch our Braves play, the same recollection will be present there when we cheer them on to many hopeful victories.

Principal Charles Ray presents the trophy.

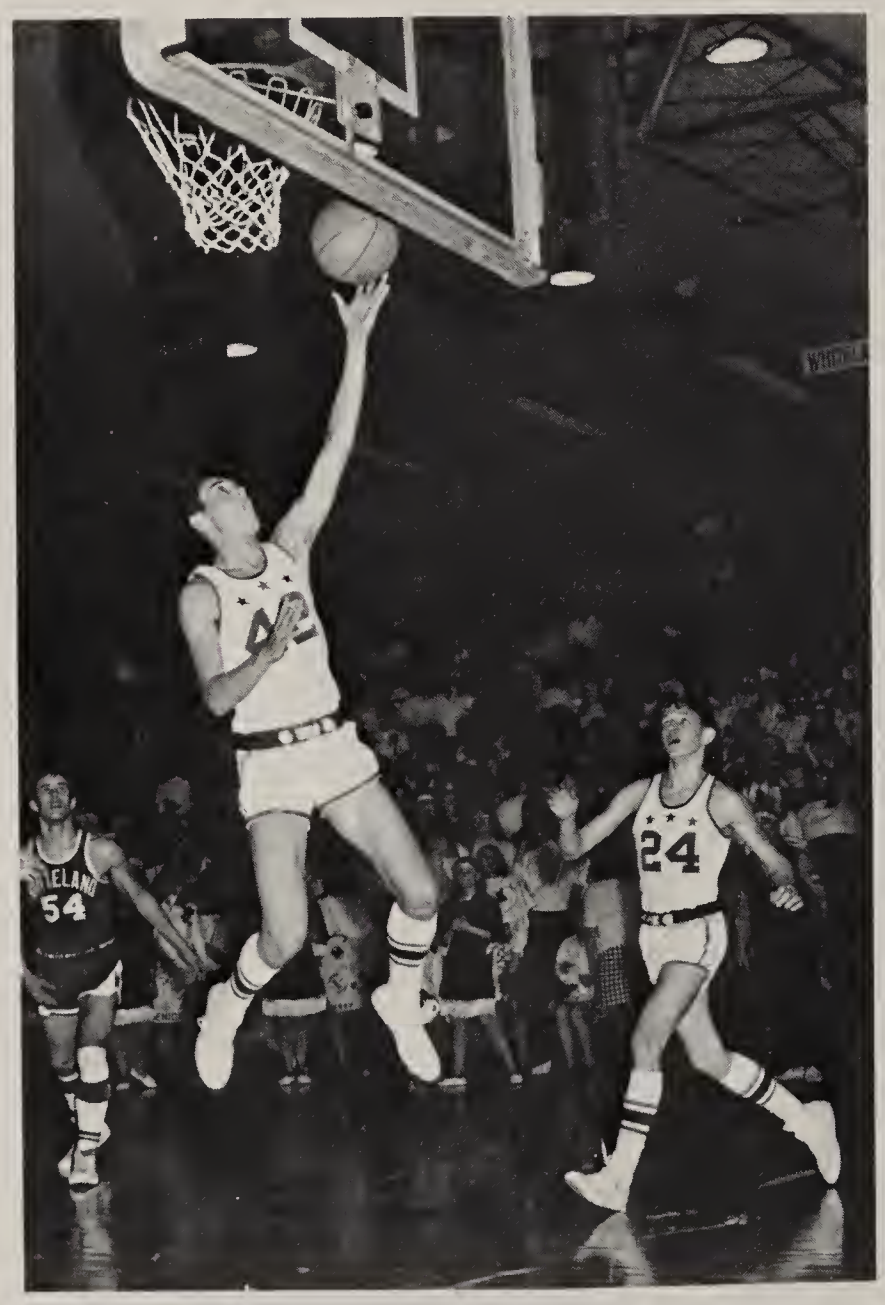
Brave fans "jump for joy" as Indian Creek wins its first game in the tourney.

Moore rebounds as Willis looks.

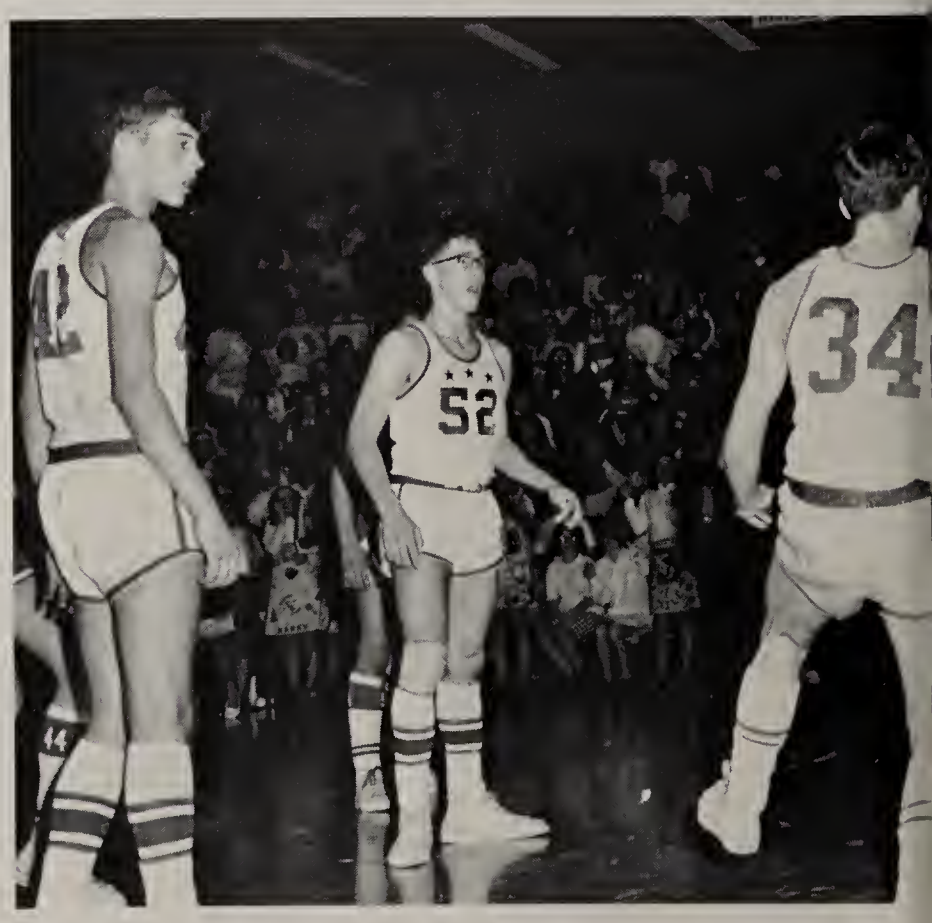
Appearing like a jump ball in front of the net, our team succeeds in snaring another rebound.

Indian Creek High School Sectional Time

Being our first year at Indian Creek, the 1968 sectionals were especially important. The enthusiasm and school spirit accompanied by the good sportsmanship and skill of the Indian Creek Braves showed our loyalty in the sectionals. But Whiteland was our match. The defeat cut deeply into each Brave's heart, but also tripled our determination to win every other sectional we participate in from now until eternity.



As Dewayne Skinner charges down the floor, he finds himself wide open for another two points for Indian Creek.



"Come on Ref, you have to be kidding!"

Tension and spirits rise as the mighty Braves fight on.

A Whiteland player has confused himself with a Harlem Globe Trotter as he attempts to dribble (?).

Denny Speer sails (?) over a hurdle.

"Here I come, ready or not!" says Jack Hedger.

Track is the new sport for ICHS and these boys make up the team.

Tim Magoon sets a new record in the 220 yard dash.

"Up, up and away" John Lancaster!

Strength and endurance were qualities of the cross country team.

Track and Cross Country Teams

"Catch us if you can!"

Even though this was the first time many of the boys had ever participated in track, the results were tremendous. Several great records were set. The Cross Country team had the honor of winning the first trophy for Indian Creek

Spring Arrives with the Crack of the Bat.

The Braves baseball team had a good season. They got off to a bad start in their first game, however, the most outstanding score recorded during the season was 40-1 in the game with Mooresville.

The Band Entertained Much during the Year

The band is caught by the camera as they practice before a pep session.

The band provided music at the home ballgames, and with the help of the Bravettes, put on many floor shows. The band also performed at the dedication ceremonies, Christmas program, and graduation. Our school hosted the County Band Festival.

Chorus Displays Much Talent Through Members

Behind music there must be accompanists. They are: (left to right) Miss Snell, director, Joyce Prather, and Jane Kitch.

Indian Creek's first chorus was a good one. They performed for several programs during the year, including the school dedication, Christmas convocation, and the Johnson Co. Choral Festival. A smaller select group of the chorus, the Rhythmaires, also were active, singing in the Johnson Co. Talent Show and the Student Council Talent Show.

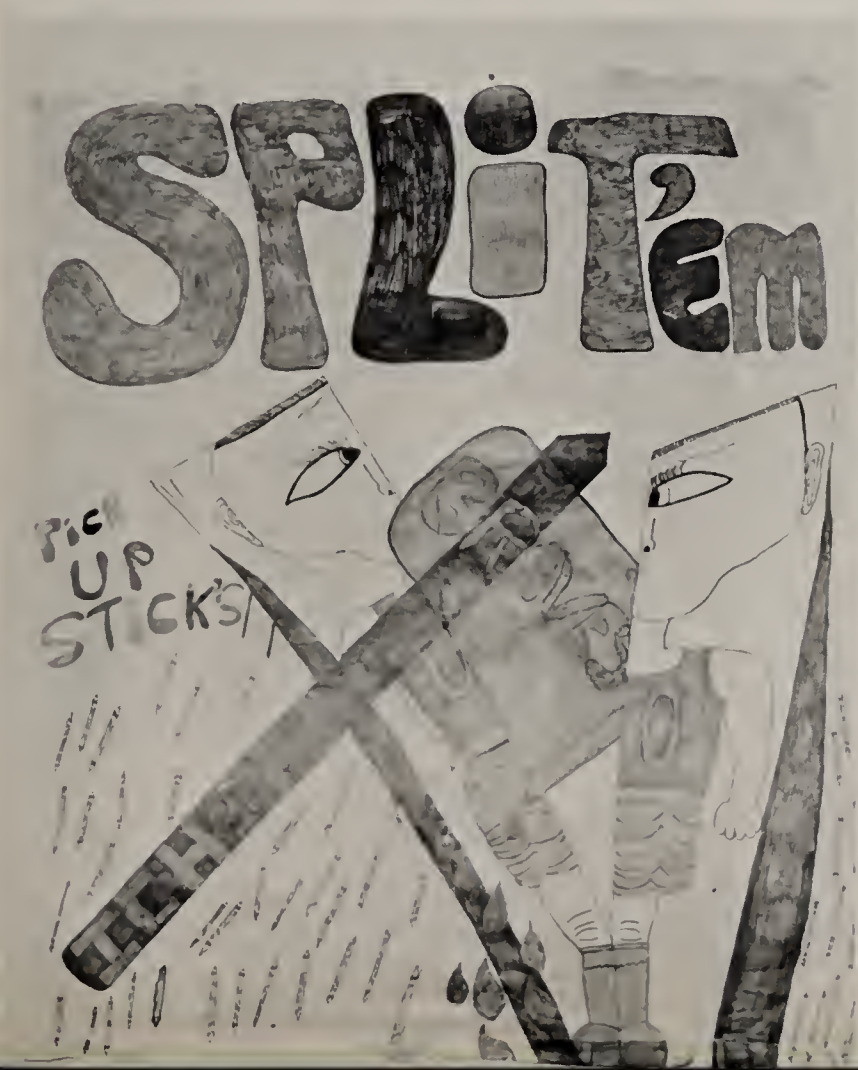
Student Council Promotes School Spirit



The Indian Creek High School Student Council was responsible for the convocation program of the school and also sponsored the Basketball Poster Contest; both encouraged much school spirit. Among its other activities the Student Council sets up and administers class elections. Still more responsibilities will be given the Student Council as it will become a powerful force in years to come.

This poster, made by Room 107, is typical of the many colorful and arty creations displayed at the ballgames.

Drama Club Shows Talent in Many Students.

The Drama Club has been very active during the year. Various members were selected as the casts for the Drama Night Program earlier in the year. The members of the speech and dramatics class held tryouts for their play which was a class requirement. The name of the play was "Off the Track." They all enjoyed the class and the club, and a lot was learned.

A student must have an average of 3.0 and be elected by the faculty to belong to the Honor Society. Our Society was chartered in May of 1967. The members for the Society were tapped on Feb. 9 by the Whiteland Chapter and initiated on Feb. 15.

Activities Yield Early Success

First year organizations at Indian Creek roared from an awkward start to smooth running. This year's Science Club sponsored a science fair and a demonstration of new scientific techniques. The Junior Classical League recieved it's new charter and the Business Club was interviewed by businessmen concering future jobs.

Business Club are Janice Cobb and Merri Jo Harrison.

The Future Farmers and the Future Homemakers of America are busy clubs. Both clubs put out much work and effort in learning to become more successful in later years. They had money making projects all during the year to raise funds for their club needs. Among the activities that the Future Farmers did was the purchasing of a tractor. They also had coat-checks at all home basketball games this year. The Future Homemakers, being a new club at school, held an initiation and installation of officers which was quite an event. They sold several different kinds of cookbooks to raise money. Sponsoring a soc hop was one of their projects. FHA'ers also attended a spring convention in Bloomington.

F T A Studies Future Teaching Aspects

The Future Teachers of America is a very worthwhile organization for those interested in a teaching career. The members attended the Area Conference and State Convention. Many members assisted teachers at the open house in December.

Audio Visual Students Learn Varied Skills

The Audio Visual club provides entertainment and education for those interested in learning about our new projecting and recording equipment. Among this equipment are several projectors and screens, a laminating press, a transparency maker, a thermo-fax, and many other useful instruments. The A V sponsor, Mr. Claude Renner, is very busy this year teaching the students and faculty how to use this equipment.

Various activities, like the Library Club, French Club, and Sunshine Society, provide useful and creative outlets for many students. These extracurricular organizations give willing students chances to participate in projects on a group and personal scale.

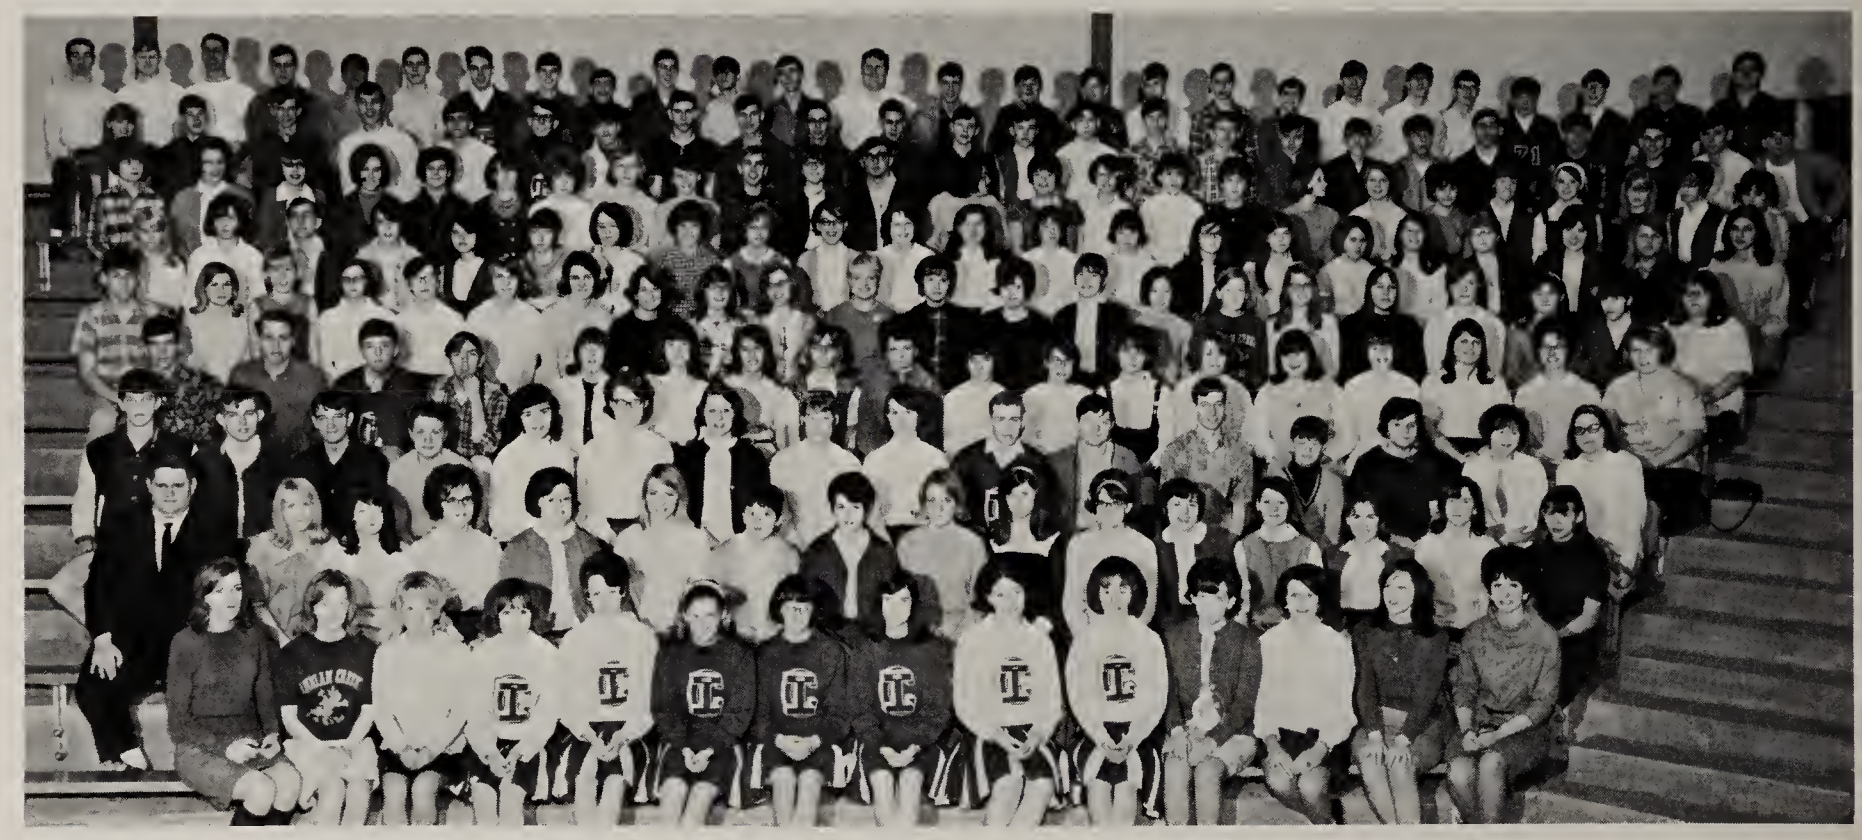
French Club officers: (from top) Jeff Millikan, pres; Russella White, sec.-treas; Ben Stafford, vice-pres.



This large, impressive group is Indian Creek's first pep club.

Pep Club is a Spirited School Supporter

The pep club for I C H S was an exceptionally large body for its first year. The members attended every home game, backing Indian Creek with spirited yells. The pep club was led by the cheerleaders in the yells with many intricate movements.

Officers displaying banners are R. Ray, pres; G. Chumbley, secy; G. Burkhart, treas; S. Kitch, assist. secy.

Jumping for joy are Carla Skinner, Karen Browning, Linda Hynds, and Connie Doan.

The cheerleaders lead the yells . . .

. . . and the fans shout their response, which could only be — "Let's have another victory!"

Newspaper and Yearbook Staffs Were Active!

The newspaper and the yearbook staffs at Indian Creek this year consisted of members of the Journalism class. Those members were quite busy this year. The challenge of finding, assimilating, and reporting the Indian Creek High news to the Indian Creek students was an honorable one. Also the responsibility of producing an Indian Creek yearbook was another challenge to be met.

Thanks ...

. . . especially to our yearbook sponsor, Miss Knecht, who was our third sponsor, and the one who made it through.

. . . to Paragon Yearbooks and our Paragon representative, Dick Bussell, for showing us how to put this book together.

. . . to Mrs. Kincheloe for the artwork on pages 75, 85, 91, and 97.

. . . to the administration, faculty, and students for their cooperation and help in making this book a success.
